Bibliology (Scripture), Prolegomena (Introductory
Matters, Theology Proper (Study of God)
Front Range Bible Institute (Spring 2014)
Professor Tim Dane

I. Course Description

Theology I is the first of four theology classes. This course will include a study of the first four of the ten major branches of theology and will embrace three topics of Systematic Theology: Bibliology, Prolegomena, and Theology Proper.

The course will include classroom lectures that are primarily based upon the professor's notes, although the format will not be in a pure lecture form. Students are encouraged to participate by asking and answering questions and taking notes. Detailed notes will be provided, but the student is encouraged to make additions in the margins based upon classroom discussions that will expand and elaborate.

The course will include quizzes and exams from the materials studied as well as a class project. The class project will be aimed at taking the classroom learning and transferring it into a useable student tool for practical ministry purposes.

II. Course Objectives

One objective of this class is to have students become familiar with orthodox Christian theology in the areas of Bibliology, Prolegomena, and Theology Proper. To accomplish this, the professor will expose the students primarily to the orthodox views, but will also expose students to heretical and aberrant views as they have arisen throughout the ages.

A second objective of this class is that this theological learning process would achieve its true end of producing a greater love for God and a greater desire for genuine worship. Jesus said that the Father seeks true worshippers who worship in spirit and truth. The goal of theology is more than acquisition of knowledge, it is to produce true worshippers of God.

A third objective of this course is that students take the knowledge they acquire, and begin applying their growing knowledge in practical ministry. This will be accomplished by having a class project that is designed for some type of ministry application and by requiring that this class project be employed in some type of ministry setting.

III. Required Course Materials

- A. Professor's syllabus and notes on Theology I.
- B. Christian Theology by Millard Erickson, Baker Books (required reading for all students).
- C. Knowing God by J. I. Packer.
- D. "Divine Revelation and the Close of the Prophetic Age," by Tim Dane
- E. Your own computer or at least access to a computer
  - i. Class presentations should be on Microsoft Word, although the hard copies of your project do not necessarily have to be done on this program. Using the same program may be helpful when it comes to questions about style and formatting.
  - ii. It is recommended (though not required) that you see if you could employ Power Point in your teaching.
  - iii. You do not need to have a laptop in class, but you may use one for note-taking if you prefer.
- F. Logos Libronix Bible Software Program (highly recommended as a personal study tool, but not required for the class. Group discount may be possible through FBI).

IV. Course Requirements

- A. Attend all classes (if a student must miss a class, he/she must obtain a DVD copy and watch the lecture).
- B. All students: Read Millard Erickson's Christian Theology up through the discussions that cover Prolegomena, Bibliology and Theology Proper, up through page 432 (or depending upon your edition, up through the page that covers all the material on Bibliology and Theology Proper).
- C. All students: Read J. I. Packer's Knowing God.
- D. All students: Read "Divine Revelation and the Close of the Prophetic Age," by Tim Dane.
- E. Take notes as appropriate
- F. Take exams
- G. Respond to the weekly discussion Threaded Discussion questions and to other students' responses in weeks 2-11 as explained below
- H. Complete semester project with its ministry requirements

V. Threaded Discussions

- A. In each of weeks 2-11, students are to participate with the professor and with each other in an online threaded discussion involving various topics.
- B. Questions for threaded discussion are given in weeks 2-11. Each week the student must do the following:
  - i. (1) First, the student must first make a direct reply to the question as posed by the professor. This answer should be roughly 100-200 words.
  - ii. (2) Second, the student must reply to at least one of the other students based on the answer that was given by that student (one make reply to more than one student and should feel free to do so, but he must interact with at least one). This answer should be roughly 50-100 words.
- C. The response to each of the professor's questions must be made by Thursday of that week in which the question is posted. Answering by Thursday will allow time for the other students to interact with you by the end of the week.
- D. The response to at least one of the other student's answers must be made Sunday of that same week. As noted, each person is required to respond to at least one of the other students, but is encouraged to interact with as many as you can.

VI. Course Grading Criteria

- A. 25% Bibliology Quiz
- B. 25% Theology Proper Quiz
- C. 25% Classroom Participation and Threaded Discussions
- D. 25% Class Project

VII. Class Project

- A. Prepare a teaching outline based upon classroom studies that you will present to others in some kind of teaching context.
- B. After preparing the material, you will teach it.
- C. After teaching it, you will turn in a copy of the material along with a note that tells where you taught it, when you taught, who you taught it to, and have this note signed by one person who was present.
- D. The teaching time should have a minimum goal of 20 minutes teaching time.
- E. The context can be in any variety of settings, with some suggestions listed here:

- i. A Sunday School class
- ii. A home Bible study
- iii. A time of family devotions
- iv. A convalescent home (perhaps you could begin a new ministry)
- v. A hospital that might allow such ministry
- vi. A visitation to a church “shut-in’ who cannot attend church
- vii. Note: as a requirement, first go to your pastor (by class week 2) and ask him if he can help schedule a way for you to fulfill this requirement. If he cannot, then you can find your own teaching opportunity.
- viii. Have one of those present fill out a brief evaluation form with constructive criticism, sign it, and return it to you.
- ix. See, if possible, to have either your professor or pastor be present at the teaching session.

F. The subject and outline will be as follows:

- i. An introduction section that briefly discusses why man needs revelation and Scripture (deals with issues of man’s sin and need for salvation)
- ii. What God has done to provide revelation and truth (deals with inspiration and how God has given revelation and written Scripture through His prophets)
- iii. Why we should believe that the Scripture is reliable and inerrant (deals with what God says about the truthfulness of His Word as well as external factors that demonstrate the reliability of the Bible)
- iv. What God promises the Scripture can accomplish (deals with what God says His Word does in producing godliness and holiness, etc.)
- v. A brief section on what God says about His own Triunity (very brief listing and explanation from Scripture)
- vi. A brief section that talks about God’s nature and character (names or attributes. This must be concise)
- vii. A brief section that makes mention of God’s sovereignty and the good purpose of His will
- viii. A brief closing section that concisely applies the main ideas taught and gives an exhortation for practical application for the hearers.

G. The project should be in an outline kind of format as noted above in section “F.” The main points should be as noted above, but the student should also seek to develop with subpoints, etc.

H. Since this is an outline, you will not be having to give extensive filling in with explanation of your points. You will do this when you teach the material. You can put as much text as you feel is comfortable for your own purposes.

- I. The project should roughly be 7-10 pages for Certificate and Bachelor’s students and roughly 15-20 pages for Master’s students (precise length of project is not the main point, but content and practice is).
- J. Have the project completed, taught, and turned in by the end of class.
