BST 603 Theology III Syllabus

Christology (Christ), Pneumatology (Spirit), Soteriology (Salvation)

Professor Tim Dane

Spring 2019

I. Course Description

Theology III includes a study on (1) the doctrine of Christology (study of the person and work of Christ), (2) the doctrine of Pneumatology (study of the Holy Spirit), and (3) the doctrine of Soteriology (study of salvation).

The course will include classroom lectures that are primarily based upon the professor's notes, although the format will not be in a pure lecture form. Students are encouraged to participate by asking and answering questions and taking notes. Detailed notes will be provided, but the student is encouraged to make additions in the margins based upon classroom discussions that will expand and elaborate.

The course will include quizzes and exams from the materials studied. In the place of a semester paper or class project, the students will be required to memorize major Bible verses throughout the Scripture that deal with the doctrines of Christology, Pneumatology, and Soteriology. Such memorization will enrich the student's life and provide an immeasurable depth in a lifetime of evangelizing and teaching.

II. Course Objectives

- A. One objective of this class is to have students become familiar with orthodox Christian theology in the areas of Christology, Pneumatology, and Soteriology. To accomplish this, the professor will expose the students primarily to the orthodox views, but will also expose students to heretical and aberrant views as they have arisen throughout the ages. This will especially deal with a focus on the following issues: (1) A greatly expanded and memorized knowledge of the person and work of Jesus Christ, (2) A greatly expanded and memorized knowledge of messianic prophecy, (3) A greatly expanded and memorized knowledge of the person and work of the Holy Spirit, (4) A greatly expanded and memorized knowledge of biblical teaching on the doctrine of salvation, (5) A greatly expanded and increased knowledge of sovereign grace, and how God is at work to graciously redeem unworthy sinners.
- B. A second objective of this class is that this theological learning process would achieve its true end of producing a greater love for God and a greater desire for genuine worship. Jesus said that the Father seeks true worshippers who worship in spirit and truth. The goal of theology is more than acquisition of knowledge, it is to produce true worshippers of God.
- C. A third objective of this course is that students take the knowledge they acquire, and commit large portions of it to memory so that classroom learning results in a deeply memorized base of truth for future service.

- B. Questions for threaded discussion are given in weeks 2-10. Each week the student must do the following:

 - ii. (2) Second, the student must reply to at least one of the other students based on the answer that was given by that student (one make reply to more than one student and should feel free to do so, but he must interact with at least one). This answer should be roughly 50-100 words.

VII. Course Schedule

Class	Date	Topic (subject to change based on progress)	Weekly scripture memorization and threaded discussion questions. Scripture memorization guidelines: The goal is to help you know and memorize key texts of God's Word with relation to key doctrines of the faith (which in this course relates to Christ, the Spirit, and Salvation). Review the verses with a goal to memorizing them. When you feel you have a good grasp on knowing them, type/write out each verse with your name and week on the top. I am giving you a considerable amount of Scripture on these topics and I recognize the challenge of memorizing so much Scripture. For this reason I allow you to look back to your Bible on each one of the verses. Your recall of all these verses may not be perfect, but this exercise will be a great tool for helping you become closely familiar with many key passages. Weekly Questions guidelines: 1. The initial answer must address the professor's question directly with an answer of roughly 100-200 words. 2. You must also interact with at least one other student each week with an answer that is roughly 50-100 words. The purpose is to add to what the student said, or graciously seek to correct what you might see as an error, etc. Be tactful and kind in all that you do. Both answers must be made that week on a weekly basis.
