

Syllabus for Church History II (CH 502)
Front Range Bible Institute
Professor Tim Dane (Spring 2017)

I. Course Description

CH 501/502 is a two-part course in the study of church history. CH 502 will pick up the study at the time of the Renaissance and Reformation and take the student up to the present era.

II. Course Objectives

- A. To have the student know the major events of church history
- B. To have the students know and appreciate the major doctrinal issues that developed throughout church history and how these doctrines came into formal articulation over the ages
- C. To have the student recognize the importance of protecting the Body of Christ from doctrinal deviations
- D. To have the student recognize the importance of learning from the past—learning from the right choices of the past as well as from the mistakes of the past

III. Course Requirements

- A. Attend all classes (or purchase a DVD copy of the class if absent)
- B. Read all assigned text books
- C. Read class notes
- D. Participate in class discussions based upon your personal readings
- E. Take all exams or quizzes
- F. Complete the class project
- G. Reading requirements:
 - i. Read Justo Gonzalez. *The Story of Christianity (two volumes or in the one-volume version). San Francisco: Harper and Row. 1984. (read volume 2 from the Reformation to the present day)
 - ii. Read Church History notes by Tim Dane.
 - iii. Master's Level: Read pages 345-640 from the following: Tim Dowley, Eerdman's Handbook to The History of Christianity. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1977.

IV. Course Grading

- A. 30% Reading
- B. 30% Exam
- C. 40% Class Project

V. Class Project: Produce your own parallel column church history chart that will provide you with a tool for recalling major events and dates and also serve as a tool for your own teaching needs. As a minimum, the columns should include the following information. Build on the work you did in CH 501 by (1) continuing on from the date you already reached in your chart and (2) adding additional information to what you have already done.

- A. Precise dates for the events (or range of years if more appropriate)
- B. Name of key events
- C. Names of major individuals
- D. Events as they directly relate to the church
- E. Events in the political and military realm
- F. Your church history notes has such a chart in the early sections that can serve as a guide
